PANEL DISCUSSION

Kings, Queens & In-Betweens (15) + Venus (Short Film)

Dir. Gabrielle Burton

Through the compelling stories of eight drag performers this ground breaking documentary dives into an exploration of gender, tackling the complexities of gender expression, identity, sexuality, discrimination, family and politics with humour, pathos and duct-tape.

Love, Simon (12A)

Dir. Greg Berlanti

Everyone deserves a great love story, but for Simon it's complicated. No one knows he's gay and he doesn't know the identity of the anonymous classmate he's fallen for online. A funny and heartfelt story about the thrilling ride of finding yourself and falling in love.

SPECIAL
INTRO

120 BPM (15)

Dir. Robin Campillo

In the early 1990s, Parisian AIDS activists take their actions to another level. Nathan, a newcomer to the group soon learns that some members prefer a more radical approach to their protests, and finds his world turned upside down. An exhilarating and moving film that offers an engrossing look at a pivotal period in history.

Signature Move (15)

Dir. Jennifer Reeder

Zaynab, a thirty-something Pakistani, Muslim, lesbian, amateur wrestler lives in Chicago where she takes care of her recently widowed mother. As Zaynab embarks on a relationship with Alma, a confident and vivacious Mexican American woman, she searches for her identity in life, love and wrestling.

But I'm A Cheerleader (15)

Dir. Jamie Babbit

A confident and opinionated high school cheerleader is sent to a residential inpatient conversion therapy camp by her unsupportive parents, in a desperate attempt to 'cure' her lesbianism. This satirical rom-com is a classic LGBT+ film that shouldn't be missed on the big screen.

The Wound (15)

Dir. John Trengove

A community gathering in the mountains of the Eastern Cape to initiate a group of teenage boys into manhood is disrupted when a defiant initiate from the city discovers a well-kept secret. The Wound is a visually breathtaking meditation on wounds that exist on the surface, and the deeper scars that never truly heal.
